Veterans Memorial Hall and Museum presents

“The Art of Healing”

For Spring ArtScene 2018

Veterans Memorial Hall and Museum is looking for Veteran Artist to Exhibit their work.

Veterans Memorial Hall and Museum opened its doors in 1903 as a monument to our soldiers and sailors. Today we continue fulfill that mission through community engagement, education and events. On April 13th and 14th of 2018 we will participate in the Rockford Area Arts Council ArtScene 2018. “The Art of Healing” is a presentation of Veteran created art work of all media; new for us this year will be inclusion of performance art.

Are you an artistic veteran? Have you used art as a healing avenue and are willing to share your work? Do you continue to honor your Brothers in Arms through your artwork? Veterans Memorial Hall and Museum is opening its doors for you to exhibit your work in the unique environment only the Hall can provide.

We are looking to fill Veterans Memorial Hall and Museum with art: paint, sculpture, performance, photography, 2D and 3D of all types. Limited exhibit space will be available in the Grand Hall, Lower Level and Lincoln Lyceum. Please see the attached building layouts for space locations and contract for space reservations.

Application deadline: March 1, 2018

Booth fee: $25 [10x8] and $45 [15x8]

Application available at: www.veteransmemorialhall.com

The Veterans Memorial Hall and Museum appreciates your participation in ArtScene 2018.

We thank you for helping us to continue the tradition of honoring our Veterans.
